Dear Diary

30TH JUNE 2026

*A recap of the first six months;
the applause, the heartbreak, and everything in between.*

30TH JUNE 2026

Dear Diary,

We're halfway through the year. If someone had shown me this page on 1 January and said, "This is how your first six months will unfold," I probably would have laughed; and then cried. Because this year has held both applause and heartbreak.

JANUARY · A BEGINNING, AND A GOODBYE

It began in the most beautiful way possible. On the very first day of the year, RFP Ministries honoured me with the Most Impactful Individual Award for 2025. I remember standing there thinking, what a way to begin. It felt less like an award for what had happened and more like a responsibility for what was yet to come. I had no idea how prophetic that moment would be.

A few days later, Vision Works came alive again. We hosted two Vision Strategy Sessions; first in Blantyre, then in Lilongwe.

"It felt less like an award for what had happened, and more like a responsibility for what was yet to come."

There is something difficult to explain about those sessions. People often ask me why I continue doing them. The answer is simple: every time I leave one of those rooms, I breathe differently.

I leave feeling purposeful, fulfilled, accomplished; as though I've spent a few hours exactly where I was meant to be. Then life reminded me that purpose doesn't exempt us from pain. On 13 January, my grandmother quietly closed her eyes for the last time. For the first time since beginning Vision Strategy Sessions, I had to postpone one because I needed to be with family.

With my grandmother; a moment I will always hold close.

“Vision Works cannot always depend on Sarah being physically present. If this mission is bigger than me, I need to build systems that continue serving people even when life asks me to step away.”

FEBRUARY • ROOMS YOU’VE ADMIRED FROM A DISTANCE

Growth Conversations with Standard Bank; February 2026

February surprised me. I had the privilege of recording my very first Growth Conversations with Standard Bank. The series wasn’t new; my participation was. I’d watched those conversations before, never imagining one day I’d be sitting on that set, sharing my own thoughts about growth, purpose and money.

Life has a funny way of quietly introducing you to rooms you’ve admired from a distance.

You can watch that conversation on YouTube; the link lives on the digital edition of this journal.

MARCH · THE CHALLENGE THAT BECAME A LABORATORY

Around that same time, a simple conversation online became something much bigger than I expected. It became the March Money Challenge. The goal sounded outrageous: make MWK100,000 every single day for thirty-one days.

262 PEOPLE JOINED	31 DAYS	100K MWK DAILY TARGET
-----------------------------	-------------------	---------------------------------

What started as a challenge quickly became a laboratory. How do ordinary people create money consistently? How do we build income instead of wishing for it? The challenge forced me to build solutions I had postponed for years.

It gave birth to my website. It inspired online classes. It introduced my first “Buy Your First Shares” course, and created income streams I hadn’t planned for at the start of the year.

Ironically, the challenge wasn’t just about making money; it was about becoming the kind of person who creates value every single day.

MARCH 2026 · WEALTH WOMAN SEASON IV

Recognised as one of the 100 Inspiring Women. Awards don’t make me feel bigger; they make me feel smaller, in the best possible way. They remind me that people are watching; that showing up matters.

APRIL – MAY · MOMENTUM, AND A BIRTHDAY

When the March Challenge ended, I wasn’t ready for the momentum to stop. So we started another experiment: Save MWK1 million in 90 days. As I write this entry, we’re just eleven days from completing that journey. Watching 1,000+ people build financial habits together has convinced me of something: money is rarely transformed by information alone; it’s transformed through community.

Making a wish; my birthday, May 2026

May arrived with my birthday. I expected a quiet one. Instead, family and friends overwhelmed me with love. Being celebrated by strangers is beautiful; being celebrated by people who've watched every version of you, the uncertain one, the exhausted one, the determined one, is something else entirely.

JUNE • A FULL CIRCLE

Slowing down; a moment of rest and reflection, June 2026

June brought one of the year's most unexpected highlights; my first yoga session. Not because I suddenly became a yoga enthusiast, but because I had the opportunity to lead affirmations during the experience.

Who knew slowing down could feel so powerful?

Then, just as the first half of the year was ending, life quietly completed a full circle.

2026 Financial Success Conference; RFP Ministries, June 2026

I stood on the stage at the Financial Success Conference hosted by RFP Ministries. I've attended that conference faithfully since 2018. Every year I sat in the audience learning from speakers I admired. This year, I became one of them.

"There's something deeply emotional about standing on a stage that once helped build you. The stage that shaped me eventually welcomed me."

THE GREATEST LESSON FROM THESE SIX MONTHS

Dreams don't usually arrive fully assembled. They begin as uncomfortable ideas; then become experiments; evolve into habits; then, one day, they become the very thing people congratulate you for.

MY DREAM CORNER

- ✿ Partnering with banks and investment houses so the 90-Day Savings Challenge becomes truly rewarding; with incentives that make good financial habits easier to sustain.
- ✿ Working alongside incubator hubs so the March Money Challenge becomes a launchpad where people build businesses that outlive the challenge itself.
- ✿ Writing a book about everything the "MWK100,000 a Day" challenge taught me; lessons I couldn't have learned from theory alone.
- ✿ A podcast launching in September: Money with Vision.
- ✿ A new direction forming in private coaching; one of the most meaningful parts of my work. I'll tell you about it when it's ready.

So if we've crossed paths this year, whether in a conference hall, a Vision Strategy Session, an online class, a private coaching session, or through a video that found its way onto your screen, thank you. Every conversation continues under one name: Vision Works with Sarah. Until the next diary entry; thank you for reading a page from my life.

With gratitude,

Sarah
